Pikes Peak Women's Connection

Linda Posey and I had the privilege of attending a luncheon on Dec. 8th, and sharing WHWB with this fantastic group of ladies. We were adopted for their Christmas Charity for this year.

It was a Great lunch with lots of interest and questions. We were presented with a huge amount of baby and children items, almost too numerous to count. There were afghans, hats, blankets, diapers, wipes, clothing items, toiletries, gently worn items, and toys, just to name a few.

We may get new members to our group, several ladies expressed interest. The more the merrier.

Thank you to Barbara Parsons for bringing WHWB to the attention of this Fantastic Group.

Craft Show News

A big thank you goes to Elizabeth and all of the volunteers who donated items to sell and those who worked our booth space during the three craft shows. We received many compliments on the quality and variety of the items displayed. Your assistance helped make this a successful sale season for Warm Hearts ~ Warm Babies.

Thank You Volunteers

Dear Warm Hearts-Warm Babies,

Thank you so much for all of your contributions to the babies on our unit! All of the baby clothing is so cute, the parents love it. In fact, we have a baby here now who is wearing the Christmas pants you made with the reindeer and Christmas trees. Thank you so much for all that you do!

Love,

All the Nurses, Babies, and Parents of Vail Valley Medical Center

To The Board of Directors,

Thanks so much for everything you have done. You made it possible for me to feel like I really made a difference in young families lives. I love knitting for babies and will continue to do so. WHWB holds a very special place in my heart.

Dear Ladies,

Just wanted to thank you for the tiny fleece pants my son wore in the Vail Valley Medical Center. He was 1 month premature and those green deer pants were the first thing he wore. We appreciated having something warm for him while we were in the hospital.

Thank you,

Virginia Mimick

Best Wishes for a Healthy and Happy New Year!
